

Convict Trash

Run 1754: 29th June 2020

Hare: Goldmart - Mascot

Starters Gun

Most sat in their cars waiting for the Pack to gather or the weather to warm up. An excellent turn up from The Shire including, Merkin, StopCock, Moa Goa, Sniffer Dog, Short 'n Curly, Venus, Scotch Mist, Cold Duck, Dirty Weekend and Bingo.

Hellsmellher (without the universal Aussie sign language) and Doublebanger pulled on the high-viz vests and looked ready to hit the trail. Tickle and Goon were braving the cold, still in running shorts.

Blondie faced the Pack and declared there were no arrows due to recent rainfall and that we'd need to rely on her Trail Master skills.. collective sigh! Doc, Taxing, Hannibal and Grenade led the Walkers out.

Run Report

Goldmark's Ghostly Gallop

Well it had been raining sometime the day before & in the morning so, just because it had been set three times previously, the hare decided we would be smart enough to find the trail without the assistance of arrows. It would be further enhanced by the trail mattress walking around the trail, with map, calling "check it out" & some were stupid enough (Sir Les, Dundee, Pig etal) to take her at her word or maybe just to keep warm.

No arrows, Blondie, walking, with map being turned upside down & sideways...what could possibly go wrong? Well we set off down Botany Road as she said keep running & we did until she yelled "you've gone too far" & we doubled back across the road & down a lane as she yelled "keep on running" & we did until she yelled "on Back" & we returned to turn left (north) then waited at the next corner for her to arrive.

An arrow was set sending us east again towards The Australian Golf Course & she yelled "keep running" until we looked back to see she was directing the pack down another street heading north again. Catching up she was heard to say it goes down to Gardiner's Road so off everyone went, with Dundee & Bingo in the lead & never to be seen again cause Blondie had directed us off to a side street & they hadn't noticed – probably left to do some horizontal folk dancing somewhere.

Frostbite was starting to set in as we headed north again & unbelievably finding an On Back on Gardiner's Road, which was immediately ignored as we headed back west towards Botany Road & a quick gallop back to the bucket. Bingo & Dundee arrived later looking as though they'd just had a shower & looked completely refreshed with big smiles.

Dunno who took the run report duties or what number was offered but, if it was more than one it was too many.

On On Anonymous.

RA's Report

Cold Duck dealt with a sensitive service:

- Tonight, I want to talk shit
- I have been studying shit all week, in fact, how it is treated at Mascot Sewerage Pumping Station No. 38 which is heritage listed.
- No 38 commenced operation in 1919 – 101 years ago
- The buildings are still there – between General Holmes Drive and the Airport, near where Foreshore Drive.
- No 38's purpose was to move shit from Illawarra, western and southern regions of Sydney, that flowed into the Botany and Rockdale Sewage farms, out into the sea near Long Bay. That was a success! It made the beaches in the area a lovely place to swim.
- So, before the Pumping Station, the shit must have just laid around the area of those farms, and it's a worry, that Sydney's 2nd oldest water supply (after Tank Stream) and Sydney's major source of water for 30 years, was in the same area. It was called Mill Pond.
- They still pump shit into the sea but much further out.

Run Review

Tickle knows the value of 'Short and Sweet':

- Good run – kept the pack together.
- The Walkers were seen to mix it up a bit and head off in whatever direction they wanted!
