

Convict Trash

Run 1800 – 24th May 2021

Hare: Ringless – Gymea Hotel

Starters Gun Birthdays

A lack of full information in the Trash as to where we gather for the start of this run and the bucket left Hot Dick, Ice Box and Short'n'Curly waiting at Gymea Pub wondering where everyone else was, and subsequently sadly missed the run. So sorry.

Those who had run from Gymea gathered in the car park beside the railway line, and after receiving instructions from the Hare took off for the run.

Welcome to visiting Kizzme and Dame Nellie who returned to Sydney for Stringbean's Wake on Saturday and stayed on for our run and Larrikins Memorial Run on Tuesday night.

Visitor - Climax

Birthdays – Cameron and Rabbit, and her new granddaughter Evie who was born at 11pm on her Birthday, a little sister for Archie

Run Review by Merkin

A good run, a few traps for people who nearly fell running up Wanganui Road. I took the liberty of following the Trail Master. A very good run

Look at the bright side: no matter how old you are, you're younger than you'll ever be again.

RA's Report –

Gymea

- Named after a Flower – The Gymea Lily, or Doryantes Excelsa
- A tall plant with a red flower on top
- They live in Coastal areas of NSW, near Sydney
- They were named by the local Eora people

- Gymea Pub was once owned by an Australian Boxing Legend – Vic Patrick
- He was described as the “best Australian Boxer never to win a World Title’ because he refused to travel overseas, and his career was interrupted by WWII.
- He passed away in 2006.
- Another Gymea landmark is the “Hazlehurst Regional Gallery & Art Centre”.
- It is the first public arts centre of its kind in Australia. It opened in 2000.
- Average house price is $1.3 Million

Next Weeks’ Run Hare - Doc Zio Pino Pizzeria, 930 Botany Road, Mascot

Meet in the laneway behind the restaurant for the start of the Run

Prickette

Merkin nominated Grenade normally on Monday night, insults are made because Cronulla lost their game, but this week there were no comments

Grewsome nominated Scotch Mist – On Saturday after Stringbean’s Wake, I got billeted out of my own car because it was full so I got a lift with my sister. Scotch Mist must have broken all the speed limits driving home as she got there 15 minutes before us.

Prick

Goldmark nominated Merkin for calling Grenade a “ewe”

Goon nominated Ringless for not advising where the start of run was i.e. the carpark not the hotel

Andrew nominated Dundee – I pressed the button for the lights but once again Dundee ran across the red.

Dundee nominated Andrew for skipping along beside the runners –

Scribe’s note –Hard to imagine but at the age of 10, Dundee probably also skipped along

Cold Duck nominated DoubleBangher for having trouble parking the car, had to get Hellismellher to do it for him

Prick DoubleBangher Prickette Grenade
