Hare - Merkin – Woollooware Golf Club

Starters Gun

Is it déjà vu or are we back at the Woollooware Golf Club again?

Or had Merkin set himself a challenge to find a new trail from a most frequented venue. I did ask him if he had shares in the Club.

Visitors - Slap, William, Grace, Wild Turkey and Brazilian

Run Review by Grewsome

I decided to do this run review as I did not want anyone to go gentle on Merkin. We set off, and at the first crossing, with 7 or 8 runners in tow, then on towards Caringbah. Half the walkers headed towards Woollooware, and the other half towards Botany Bay foreshore.

Running up Gannons Road, we encountered Taxing who had enough sense or ESP to approach from Caringbah and interact with the pack. From there, we zig-zagged here and there around to Burraneer Bay Road, I showed Blondie and Dundee a couple of short cuts, but at the end of the run, Scotch Mist informed me the short cutters had travelled the same distance as the rest, and not 6.5k but the same 8.5k. Young Will did all of the on backs.

Merkin felt his run was worthy of a score of 4 ½ out of 10, so not to disappoint him, that is what I shall award him.

RA's Report – Woollooware

- Not much new to tell you about Woollooware – we have had heaps of runs from here
- Have already told you about Woollooware housing the home of the mighty Sharks – 2016 Premiers, with many more to come
- At present it is a big construction site with a big shopping Centre & other buildings being built on the old Car Park, & the Club being totally rebuilt
- I've told you about the Golf Club being built in the 1950's on what was swampy land.
- And about the extinct tall Kiwi bird who is found sleeping under desks in the Admin area of the Club
- And, this creature is suspected of being involved in a couple of robberies at the Club. The Police have always suspected they were the result of an inside job.
- I have told you about the Railway station opening in 1939, opening up the area to development.

- And I have told you about the big difference in house prices between Woollooware North (where we are) & Woollooware South – add a few zero’s for Woollooware South
- It’s a fairly small suburb with only 3,962 inhabitants – 81% born here
- Average House price $2.2 Million .
