Run 1813 – 6th December 2021

Hare: Bingo - Caringbah

Starters Gun

Are we blessed or what? Another fine Monday evening following days of wet weather. Obviously God must have been a Hasher.

We saw the return of our GM Hannibal after an absence of a few weeks, and he was rewarded for his effort by receiving his winnings from the Melbourne Cup Sweep, not to mention our wonderful company.

Welcome back also to Brockie who has been unwell, and to Kizzme and Dame Nellie, our travelling Hashers.

Athlete – Brockie 50 runs

Run Review by Dundee

I was admonished that Bingo would set a run that I would appreciate, I cannot do hills, and what a run that was, she picked every fucking hill in Caringbah to run up and down, but it was most enjoyable because I short-cutted all of them.

It was a good run with lots of checks and false trails taking in the sights of Caringbah. Bingo said it was 7k but really it was a 5k run so I shall give her 7.5 out of 10.

RA's Report –

Caringbah

- Aboriginal for a Pademelon Wallaby
- Before 1911, it was called Highfield
- Four local landmarks:

- Caringbah Drive-In - opened in 1956 and closed in 1988. Was where McDonalds now is on Taren Point Road. Dirty and I went there when we were "Courting". I would bring a flagon of Ben Ean Moselle and 2 chilled glasses. Not sure we saw much of the Movies ????
- Sutherland Hospital – opened in 1958. I'm sure some of our group were born there ?
- McDowalls Department Store – Opened in 1961 on the corner of Kingsway and President Avenue opposite the Pub. It was the biggest stand along department store in Sydney. It then became Waltons
- Caringbah Inn – opened in 1954 – where Pig got kicked out of many years ago. The bouncers didn't like the look of him. Where the Sharks players got pissed after training in the 70's and 80's on either Tuesday or Thursday nights. I cant remember ? The other drinking venue was the Taren Point Pub.
- Average House price $1.7 Million

Next Weeks' Run

Hares - Dish and Goldie – Hillsdale
Bowling & Recreation Club – 49 Rhodes
Street, Hillsdale
