

Convict Trash

Run 1911 - 30/10/23

Hare: Sir Les – Location: Jannali

Starters Gun

By 6.30pm the car park behind the Jannali shops was buzzing. A most handsome Dundee was greeting all arrivals in a rather unusual manner. Blondie, ShortnCurly and Rabbit were looking resplendent in their Halloween attire and it was great to catch up with Bowerbird, Cannonmouth and Meltdown who had made a surprise visit tonight.

Circle Report – Grewsome

“ I can not get used to the spelling of Jannali ... two N’s and one L”.

Future runs now that we are well into the 1990’s runs should be set according the year of one’s birth – Meltdown will be first followed by Cannon (1938) and Bowerbird (1940).

- The Jannali Inn was originally built in 1958 by the Durkin family, who operated it for an impressive 59 years. In 2015 the Feros family (not to be confused with the Ferros group) purchased the hotel through their company JDA Hotels.
- After purchasing the property, JDA Hotels embarked on a large-scale redevelopment project. The old Jannali Inn was demolished in 2016, making way for a multi-level development. This new development includes 89 apartments across two towers and a brand-new pub at street level: the Union Place Hotel. Apparently in her early days of Hashing Blondie used to “park” where some of these apartments now stand.
- Designed by acclaimed hospitality architect Paul Kelly, the Union Place Hotel is a boutique pub with a nostalgic nod to the Chicago-style speakeasy. Apparently, a lot different to the Jannali Inn that had a rough and tumble past.

Run Report – Dundee

* I arrived tonight to find three others present who are older than me – was welcomed by Cannon who awarded me an OBE

*Sir Les completed the run twice today

* a really hot night tonight

* the best place for a summer bush run – hills, lots of hills (we can walk up the hills), goat tracks, lots of bush and flies

*well set – no on backs because Sir Les ran with us

Score – 9.75/10

Athletes – “We have some, just waiting for them to turn up at a run”.

Birthdays - None this week

Prickette –

*Sir Les > Georgie – “if my first run with B2H3 had been like this one I would not have come again”

*Growsome > Blondie – pointing to a large block of units “we used to park down there” (with Doc after the run???)

*Growsome > Bingo - being unsure of the steep, uneven steps she clung to the rock face, so she did not fall into the abyss

Prick –

*Growsome > Dundee – giving Sir Les 9.75/10 for the run plus Growsome measured the run to be 5.4ks and Dundee measured 5.8ks

*Blondie > Sir Les – we had to wait twenty minutes for the bucket to open as Sir les was out on the run

*Scotch Mist > Sir Les – he was out on the run when she arrived ... which way to go???

*? > Scotch Mist - ?

 And this week’s winners are Blondie and Scotch Mist *****
