Circle Report – Hannibal

The goat (Capra hircus) is the official animal of Yarrawarrah. Yarrawarrah is the native word for place of the goat.

Having mountain goat qualities in Yarrawarrah helps because the suburb is situated on the side of a hill. Every house is above or below road level and there is no level ground whatsoever there.

Doublebanger is able to recite the names of the more than 300 goat breeds. He has interacted with them all and has the sore knee to prove it.

Hellismellher has to call Doublebanger the G.O.A.T. If not there will be big trouble.

Well done to all the 🐐 and to Doublebanger for setting a run worthy of the fine place that is Yarrawarrah.

Yarrowarra

Known as North Engadine until 1971, Yarrowarra's cheap land, isolation and influx of camp-dwellers during the Depression made it a poor relation of surrounding suburbs.

Development after the 1960s releases of Crown land has resulted in a pleasant bushland suburb where Doublebangher and Hellismellher reside and goats cause havoc.
