Discover Old Sydney Town (our first settlement) Circular Quay, Harbour Bridge, Opera House, Darling Harbour and Barangaroo with the Larrikins and dine beneath the stars on Observatory Hill-- enjoy a legendary Run, Food, Grog and Sydney!

3. Wednesday 20th September 2017 6 to 10 pm (Your hosts: Sydney Hash House Harriettes)

Harold Park, beside Bicentennial Park, Glebe - with its glorious views across Rozelle Bay to Anzac Bridge (known the world over as Madonna's Bra—see, and feel, why!) You'll love your warm welcome by the happy Harriettes, home cooking (where their partners think they are), bubbly, wine and beer.

4. Thursday 21st
September 2017

6 to 10 pm

(Your hosts: Sydney Thirsty Hash-STH3)

Frock me?! No frock you! C*m one, come all, to the Sydney Thirsty Hash House Harriers Red Dress R*n! It's time to dust off your best little red dress and strut your stuff. The run will begin in historic Woolloomooloo and take you through Kings Cross, Darlinghurst and Oxford Street to show you off to all the boys'n'girls, and celebrate STH3's 20th Anniversary. We'll cruise the laneways and alleyways collecting cash for Prostate Cancer Research and Treatment from seedy ladies, boys and lady-boys, as $10 of your event entry goes directly to fighting this dreadful cancer. There's a splendid secret venue for refreshments and circle.
