Hannibal Lector – Hunter Valley

Run Report

The Hunter Valley is 120 km From the Kogarah Tavern. It is home to the wonderful Cessnock Gaol. The port at Newcastle is the world's largest export facility for coal and the Hunter Valley has 6 power stations It is the 6th most visited place in Australia. It is the 2nd largest thoroughbred horse breeding area in the world.

A famous stallion, Encosta De Lago was the leading sire in 2007–08 and 2008–09; In 2008 Encosta de Lago's service fee rose to $302,500 and he served 227 mares that season. The grass is good in the Hunter Valley

Maitland is the jewel of the Hunter, it is a bit like Jannalli is to the Shire. The Maitland Pumpkin Pickers RLFC were formed from a merger of Maitland United and Morpeth-East Maitland in the 1942 season. Peter Dimond and Kel O'Shea were famous Pumpkin Pickers and Magpies.

The most famous residents of the Hunter Valley are BINGO, SQUATTING SQUAW and LOAN ARRANGER. BINGO developed a fondness for wearing frilly underwear while pumping pom poms in her Pumpkin Picker supporter days. She still wears the same style today.

The Hunter Valley claims to be Australia's oldest wine region and produces 3% of the wine in Australia . It is the place where I committed and act of matrimony before heading off to Peterson House for the post wedding piss up. Peterson House's motto is, Life's flat without bubbles.

Prick of the Week – MERKIN due to his arse related problems

Prickette of the Week - TAXING for going for a feed at the Merton and not inviting anyone else..
