CIRCLE REPORT

The bucket was in an alley behind the hotel. While waiting for the pack to appear (it was very dark so was not fussy, any company would do) out of the gloom loomed two small packs of people, approaching from opposite directions, wearing their "colours" – red t-shirts one end, lovely shades of greens and yellows the other. OMG! Am I in the middle of a territorial gang war? NAH, it was the walkers, finding their own way home, not bothering to follow trail as usual.

Stand in RA tonight was Duck who was offered a milk crate by Slops, unusually caring, he told Duck it was for him to rest his tired old bottom on... Loan Arranger was apparently busy humping himself in the Hunter Valley. Score : run; no idea : Loan Arranger 5/10 for effort.

Run Reporter

Merkin who, by the way, is held in very high esteem by his colleagues at Bankwest. Apparently the amount of due diligence work he does relating to deals involving pubs is amazing, particularly on a Friday.

Anyway, back to the run report. Merkin remarked that this run was different to the normal QR Kogarah run because there was a on back up the hill to Carlton rather than the usual on back up the same hill to Kogarah – the run was set anticlockwise for a change. They did have to run around St George’s Stadium which caused a few tears and jeers.

Kogarah was the fruit and vegetable bowl of Sydney (unlike poor trash can Zetland). Apart from that though, it is a pretty boring suburb history wise. Name came from aboriginal word for “place of reeds” – Wongarra (or similar, don’t quote me!). It was the site of Moorefield Race course (for dogs or horses, Merkin/Slops?). There is a statue of Bruce Lee here for some obscure reason. Famous residents (which don’t include Bruce Lee) are Clive James, Glasnier, Dave Brown (?) and Janet Howard. Oh Kay, Yawn, let’s move on to more interesting topics:

Visitor

Sandra Dee, Peter, Digitizer and Brengun.

Prick Nominations

Slotcard, nominated QR. She was having a glass of wine at his place and asked for some ice. For another obscure reason (have to ask QR about this) the only ice he had was in the shape of little frozen penises. Slotcard had to refuse, “I can’t suck on those, you’ll get jealous!”

Prickette Nominations

DW nominated Spini who asked her how she could keep wearing her “Abo T-shirt”. Oops, apparently, it was a t-shirt DW bought in PNG when she was travelling with her twin sister, Blondie.

Merkin picked on Grenade for crying into her beer two weeks ago when Cronulla flogged the Storm, she’s still crying.

Duck then nominated DW. She went ten pin bowling and lost the match to an 88-year-old with a walking stick...

Pick and Prickette: QR & Grenade
