Run Report

No run report again. Following the readers' digest of excuses, this week it was dad's turn. Stringbean called in, had a blue with his son culminating in Grewsome telling Stringbean he'd have to "eat my words". Without hesitation, Stringbean grabbed the B2H3 run report, swallowed it, belched, and said "don't mind if I do."

CIRCLE REPORT

Lone Arranger has virtually given up his day job as RA, just stands there and lets the historians spout rubbish instead. Tonight, we had two, first up was the honourable Joker, KG, KT, OM, AK AC, AO, AM, DSC, AO, SS, DSC to spill the beans on Hannibal and his old roots. Hannibal was, shock horror, a Western Sydney Bogan in his early years, uneducated and uncouth. Fortunately, he moved to Balmain, regained his IQ, became a Lawyer and a Tiger's supporter. This heart-warming tale of rags to riches took a sudden left turn to: Ellery Hanley, the Black Pearl, who played for the Tigers before he met Hannibal. A chance meeting led to an agreement to swap houses, Hannibal moved to Balmain, Ellery to the West where he was taken over by the Bogan Hannibal left behind. Ellery's life went from the high life to the very low after he met Hannibal's old roots. In memory of the once great Black Pearl, a special port was produced labelled – guess – you are too clever! – “The Black Pearl” and Joker reverently handed a bottle of the stuff to Hannibal which bore a stark reminder of his old roots – the label included a photo of the 1987 Magpies.

Now to the second notable historian, the Honourable Sir Les, NCG, AAM CSM GCM KBE. Lilyfield is famous for Callan Park Mental Hospital and in 1878, Dr Frederick Manning, Inspector for the Insane, noted that allowing lunatics to run around the grounds improved their mental wellbeing. It improved even more when one of them started drawing arrows around the grounds and leading them by yelling “On On” “On Back” “On Home” and occasionally “you fucking SCB!”. This maniacal running group became known as the Callan Park Hash House Harriers. When Callan Park closed the lunatics were all moved to suburbs near Botany Bay with most finding homes in Sutherland. Some became quiet and retiring hobbits, others, to this day, can be heard yelling “On On” chasing that elusive trail of arrows ☺

Thank god that's over, now to the real reason why we are all gathered here tonight:

Run Reporter: Joker: Trail was set within the “Bowels” of Lilyfield. It led down to the cesspits of the foreshore, up the sewer lines to somewhere, kept everyone together, too frightened of falling foul, and, apart from the smell, great run: Score : 9.5/10.

Visitors

Powerhouse and Bren Gun, great to see you both, do come again and often, it is such a pleasure...

Athletes:

Joker (again!) Must like seeing his name in bold : 450 runs, well done!

Bowerbird : 1250 runs, Bower may come behind Cannon but she is in front of QR.

Prickette Nominations

Lone Arranger nominated Squatting Squaw for squatting, well, not quite, she was stretching – STRETCHING!!! Not allowed in Hash, says LA. “I was not stretching, I was striking my Flamingo pose, yes, A FLAMINGINGO, a TI CHI bird apparently.

And that was it, pathetic – come on, don't be afraid, dob your wife/girlfriend/lover/old root/mate in (except you, Squatting Squaw!!)

Prick Nominations:

Pseudo rightfully nominated the obstinate and deliberately deaf, Cannon Mouth, who insisted the run did not start at the Golden Grove but another establishment. Pseudo said “it is at the Golden Grove in Lilyfield”. No, it isn't”, “yes, it is”, “No it is not”. It was.,

Lone Arranger dominated Dundee for something that looks like “ask opinion” – one should know by now that there is no point in telling Cannon anything, you also never ask Dundee his opinion,

Lone Arranger also nominated Joker who had apparently spent last weekend at Hymen's beach. Spent ages looking for it but gave up and went for a swim at Hyams beach instead.
