"Where are the lights SIR LES?"

CIRCLE REPORT:

SIR LES decided to park the bucket on the first floor of the multi-level carpark, not such a bad spot you might say? It probably seemed like a good idea when he parked it there as he was the only vehicle on that level but by the time the pack got back it was like Parramatta Road in the peak hour! Blaring horns, irate drivers, no lights, this bucket had it all! PSEUDO did his best to slow the flow of traffic by parking his 4WD in the middle of the carpark roadway, facing the wrong way, hazard lights flashing whilst he jumped out and delivered the Hash Scribe and her seat to the circle then dutifully snapped photos of the assembled hashers for the Hash Trash. When a parking space did eventually become vacant PSEUDO appointed LOAN ARRANGER to stand guard whilst he then proceeded to drive against the flow of traffic to the aforementioned parking spot! All this excitement even before SNIFFER DOG had whistled 'Circle Up'!

SNIFFER DOG gave a very brief history lesson regarding the correct spelling of Brighton-Le-Sands which in 1970 changed from Brighton-le-Sands to Brighton-Le-Sands! Did you pick it? le became Le!

Brighton-le-Sands 1936

RUN REPORTER:

LOAN ARRANGER was chosen by stand in Trailmaster GREWSOME to "deliver" the run report and "deliver" he did. (For those of you who may not know, SANDRA DEE is a midwife hence the

"I tell you this run had everything except On Backs, but a great delivery anyhow!"

"Only 8.8 are you sure LOANER?"

"delivery theme". LOANER told us that it was a lovely flat run, no on backs, no waters broke, no contractions, no rooting and, at the delivery end, no baby. A great delivery worthy of a score of 8.8

VISITORS:

Welcome to ELIZABETH, a friend of SANDRA DEE’s, who has run with us a few times and has with great wisdom decided to become a member. Well done!

PRICK OF THE WEEK NOMINATIONS:

HANNIBAL nominated LOAN ARRANGER for his intimate knowledge of the birthing process and not being too prudish to grab his best mate’s left testicle

JJ also nominated LOAN ARRANGER for his knowledge of childbirth

JJ nominated SIR LES for not parking the bucket on the next level (the roof) of the carpark which would have afforded us more light, no traffic and helped us to enjoy the ambience of the carpark in safety.

PRICKETTE OF THE WEEK NOMINATIONS:

GREWSOME nominated SPINNIFEX for denying that she was HEIL CLITLER from the B2H3 video on youtube

COMMITTEE RAFFLE

As you are all aware, Dundee's beloved daughter Sheridan White sadly passed away on 18th October at age 46. Sheridan left behind her husband Darrin & 2 young sons Nash & Archie. Sheridan's family & friends have started a fund to send Sheridan's husband & the boys to Disneyland. This of course will not bring her back but will help to brighten the lives of her loved ones at this sad, sad time and give them happy memories to focus on.

The B2H3 Committee has decided to hold an extra special raffle to assist with the fund & to give us all a chance to help. I know that many of you have already donated to the fund but please dig deep & support this raffle.

THE RAFFLE WILL BE CALLED THE "GROG" RAFFLE

Our enthusiastic ticket sellers will be out in force again next week the 27th November with the raffle being drawn that night at Joker's run at Kirrawee. This will be your last chance to buy tickets so please bring your money and see the girls at the bucket.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

GOON notified us that as a result of a lot of hard work by a few workers, the B2H3 participation in the 50 years of Hashing resulted in a profit of $800 from our event at Gunnamatta Bay. This money has been donated to Prostate Cancer Foundation of Australia. WELL DONE!

Taxing announced that if anyone receives a "friend" request on Face Book in her name, please do not respond as it is not her as she has NEVER been on Face Book! TAXING has enough friends already thanks WITHOUT Face Book finding her some!

CHRISTMAS MORNING RUN

Hash members decided that to have a breakfast run on Christmas morning was not a popular idea due to family commitments. However, a suggestion was made to have a Christmas Eve morning breakfast run on Sunday 24th. December instead. RABBIT is more than happy to host this run at Moore's Reserve, West Crescent, Hurstville Grove. There will be a show of hands next Monday night the 27th November re this idea.

"Why did I suggest a morning run?"

Welcome back to PSEUDO after a few weeks of not feeling too well

I spoke to JOYSTICK and he is well on the way to recovering from his two knee replacements. In fact he has amazed his Physio with his rapid recovery. Just goes to show you can't keep a good Hashman down!

Scribe's note: If you have any news or concerns regarding the health & wellbeing of present or past B2H3 members please let me know and I can pass the news on here.

THE RUN REPORT

Well my reward for offering PIG a lift last week was to represent him as TM for SANDRA DEE's run in Brighton- Le-Sands. I'm not sure if SANDRA DEE is a virgin but this was certainly my first time on her trail and I must say it was a jolly good one!

We started with the obligatory mad woman's loop crossing the Grande Parade onto the beach front and then back across GP and into the back streets of Brighton. The pack were enthusiastic often missing a left / right turn but we managed to find our way to Bicentennial Park with HANNIBAL front running. The trail then looped back close to the bucket and it was around this time we lost QR, BLONDIE and TICKLE - they tried to tell me they had remained on trail but I have my suspicions (they made the 3/4 bucket though)

The runners were now down to a pack of six as we crossed Muddy creek – SIR LES made a very funny comment about the origins of this creek (something to do with MUDFLAP and JOYSTICK - it could be a true story!!). We almost lost SQUATING SQUAW in William Street as she spotted a ute with its tray filled with bread rolls - she promised to take LOAN ARRANGER back after the On Inn to pick up enough rolls to last the week.

The trail then crossed Barton Park where we interrupted another Soccer game and looped a couple of Kyeemagh streets without bumping into TOSSA. (Scribe's note: TOSSA lives in Darwin now). We arrived at the 3/4 bucket at SANDRA DEE and PETER's (we must get the man a handle) and they had just packed up but recognised our thirst and quickly returned with mulled wine.

We were promised a 12 minute walk back to the RSL but as we are runners we were back in 6 to find the rest of the walkers/short cutters in the multi- story car park.

All in all - a very good run deserving of LOAN ARRANGER's score of 8.8. On On GREWSOME
Scribe's note: PETER will get a "handle" when he joins! thanks GREWSOME for this report

THE ON ON & NEVER LET THE TRUTH GET IN THE WAY OF A GOOD STORY & JOKES SECTION

On into the Brighton-Le-Sands RSL where we were all impressed by the ambience of the new restaurant. Our food arrived without delay & was plentiful, well presented & tasty. The Club had the bar open in the restaurant which saved the drinkers going back downstairs to purchase their wine etc. Great venue SANDRA DEE who, with PETER, was kept busy assisting with the “delivery” of our meals.

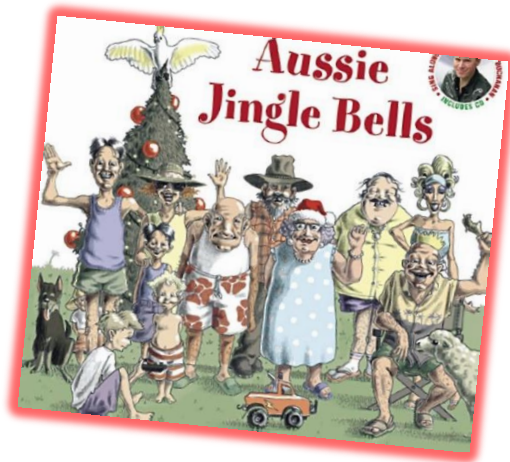

VENUS was kept busy selling raffle tickets for the Grog Raffle which is being drawn next Monday night. When VENUS & I walked into the RSL the nice young man at the desk said we did not need to sign in. VENUS replied “Thank goodness for that, I have already signed in tonight at the Ramsgate RSL by mistake!” Very sneaky VENUS not relating this news until AFTER the circle and POW nominations! Just remember there is always next week!

DOC was overheard telling PSEUDO about the huge fight he’d had over the weekend with BLONDIE. “In the end,” DOC said. “I had BLONDIE begging on her knees. “What did BLONDIE say?” asked PSEUDO who was shocked by this disclosure from DOC.

“SHE TOLD ME TO COME OUT FROM UNDER THE BLOODY BED!” said DOC

Answer to Christmas riddle: The horse’s name is BOB.

“Bells on BOB’s tail ring, making spirits bright, oh what fun it is to sing a sleighing song tonight””

On On & see you next Monday at Golden Emperor Chinese 151 Oak Rd Kirrawee. Bucket in railway carpark Holeproof

I promised you the run report from HANNIBAL’s run..sorry, still waiting!
