Run 1523

RUN 1523 – Grenade - Ramsgate

RUN REPORT:

It started in the carpark, Dundee, Bingo & Rex leading the way into Lloyd Street, across into Claydon Reserve & out on Ramsgate Road. A short distance found us turning left into Vaundan Street & then a long trek, following the north western side of Kogarah Bay. It passed six streets with only one check & an on back in Souter Street, thence into Carrs Park.

We left the park at Allawah Avenue to find ourselves climbing a massive flight of stairs up to Gnarbo Circle & down Gnarbo Avenue to another flight of stairs, down this time, alongside Carrs Park Pubic, past some shops to the Princes Highway. Back in the grass in Harold Frazer Oval, we were now over halfway along the trail Headed for home.

A long run with no more checks, via Parkside Drive, Bruce, Wyee & Lacy Streets & onto Ramsgate Road, along the end of Beverley Park Golf Course & back to the bucket.

ON ON QR.

No Map this week.

Circle Report

Once again we were without, probably a lot of things, but most of all our esteemed Religious Advisor, who was out chasing ambulances allowing the Duck to endow us with his eloquent prose. He must've anticipated the job because he ran like a duck & barely raised a sweat over the course, obviously saving his vocal cords for the night's dissitation.

It would be wrong of the writer to not acknowledge, however, the incredible short cutting exhibited by the waddler & his entourage – Bingo & Rex – both easily led women I understand. Now this group have long admonished your poor elderly scribe in his superior hashing skills & extra speed, of being able to appear in positions ahead of the group most of the run, by suggesting he was short cutting, which is blatantly untrue.

But I digress SIRA (stand in Religious Advisor) began the proceedings by stating that Ramsgate was home to only 1,000 people of various backgrounds & religious preferences & was named after some sleazy joint in England. It was also a swamp until 1830 when The State government first proposed the M6 extension & cleared the land. Whereupon Holeproof & some of her shifty crew mates, who had arrived in 1780 aboard the good ship Scarborough, converted the cleared area into playing fields & general rooting area, which exists to this day.

Sniffer being completely unaffected by the general history lesson suggested Ramsgate pub was best known for its sprung dance floor, where one could stand still & feel as though one was experiencing orgasmic delights..... and we thought the smiles were for us.

A reminder – Bucket & run Fees are due now - $170 same as last year, payable by cash, cheque or bank transfer – BSB – 082 360 – Account No. 03 938 2069 – Botany Bay Hash House Harriers. Those not financial by November 30 will be charged visitor fees & Moa is known to have a serious delight in administering severe pain on those not complying.

Run Report

Blondie was once again enlisted to handle the last rites to Grenade's Ramsgate rumble & wasted no time in talking about chicken legs, which are her favourite late night snack I understand but what they had to do with the night's run is beyond me. Then she suggested there were plenty of arrows – correct – nice scenery – eh, I spent most of the run looking at my shoelaces - & she arrived at the bucket in one piece, which was most fortunate for Doc as he anticipated what was to be – don't ask silly questions.

The Run was awarded 8 out of 10.

Prickette and Prick nominations

Dirty Weekend was nominated by Grewsome for complaining about light beer bottles being difficult to open so, being the chivalrous male he is, he held the bottle for her & asked her to unscrew the top. Unfortunately he forgot she was blonde, as she tried to turn the top the wrong way.

She was also nominated by her husband for leaving him to batch for a week, which he considered was most inconsiderate but she considered bloody terrific as she experienced a good night's sleep every night.

Moa was nominated by Grewsome for asking him “was the beer ok” or it was cheap or something, bugged if I know.

Bingo was nominated by Dundee for not knowing the difference between Gynea & Oatley – on location story.

Dundee was nominated by Duck for having superior hashing skills & running too fast for him, then wouldn't accept any other nominations.

Prickette – Dirty Weekend

Prick – Dundee

Dundee's thought for the week

Why is it that women wear skirts & men wear trousers? Would have thought that airing your balls was just as important as airing your pussy.

Snickers' Serious Scientific Summations

Given his outstanding solution to over population & global warming last week I was tempted to ask what his take was in Einstein's Theory of Relativity. Well Uncle Albie as Snickers calls him, was on the right track in respect to relatives but tried to confuse the populace by using terms which weren't completely understood so here's the layman's version:

$E=MC$ squared is easy to understand when one uses today's terminologies. We all know that Energy is really Electricity & mass is really rocks & other stuff that cause you some damage if you run into it, we'll call it "R" & Speed of light being represented by "C" is ridiculous, it should SOL. So if you multiply SOL by R & then you take that number & multiply it by itself you end up with electricity.

What Uncle Albie failed to understand is that SOL isn't a finite number because it loses speed when it has to go around things – you have to brake a bit when going around corners - & that means you need to include solar panelling (SP) to compensate so the correct equation should be $E= SP + RSOL$ squared.

When fully explained like that it's much easier to understand. I think Snickers should be first person on Mars & so does Anyway.

Can't wait for next week when he explains the basics behind the Big Bang – I thought it was the first sound you hear when you've been away for a month or so.

Third "Nile" virus is coming.....

I thought you would want to know about this e-mail virus. Even the most advanced programs from Norton or McAfee cannot take care of this one. It appears to affect those who were born prior to 1960.

Symptoms

1. Causes you to send the same e-mail twice
2. Causes you to send a blank e-mail !
3. Causes you to send an e-mail to the wrong person.
4. Causes you to send it back to the person who sent it to you.
5. Causes you to forget to attach the attachment.
6. Causes you to hit "SEND" before you've finished.
7. Causes you to hit "DELETE" instead of "SEND".
8. Causes you to hit "SEND" when you should "DELETE."

IT IS CALLED THE "C-NILE VIRUS."

Hmmm.....have I sent this to you already, or did you just send it to me?!

A highly restricted briefing document on Syria....

President Assad (who is bad) is a nasty guy who got so nasty his people rebelled and the Rebels (who are good) started winning (Hurrah!).

But then some of the rebels turned a bit nasty and are now called Islamic State (who are definitely bad!) and some continued to support democracy (who are still good.)

So the Americans (who are good) started bombing Islamic State (who are bad) and giving arms to the Syrian Rebels (who are good) so they could fight Assad (who is still bad) which was good.

By the way, there is a breakaway state in the north run by the Kurds who want to fight IS (which is a good thing) but the Turkish authorities think they are bad, so we have to say they are bad whilst secretly thinking they're good and giving them guns to fight IS (which is good) but that is another matter.

Getting back to Syria.

So President Putin (who is bad, cos he invaded Crimea and the Ukraine and killed lots of folks including that nice Russian man in London with polonium poisoned sushi) has decided to back Assad (who is still bad) by attacking IS (who are also bad) which is sort of a good thing?

But Putin (still bad) thinks the Syrian Rebels (who are good) are also bad, and so he bombs them too, much to the annoyance of the Americans (who are good) who are busy backing and arming the rebels (who are also good).

Now Iran (who used to be bad, but now they have agreed not to build any nuclear weapons and bomb Israel are now good) are going to provide ground troops to support Assad (still bad) as are the Russians (bad) who now have ground troops and aircraft in Syria.

So a Coalition of Assad (still bad) Putin (extra bad) and the Iranians (good, but in a bad sort of way) are going to attack IS (who are bad) which is a good thing, but also the Syrian Rebels (who are good) which is bad.

Now the British (obviously good, except that nice Mr Corbyn in the corduroy jacket, who is probably bad) and the Americans (also good) cannot attack Assad (still bad) for fear of upsetting Putin (bad) and Iran (good / bad) and now they have to accept that Assad might not be that bad after all compared to IS (who are super bad).

So Assad (bad) is now probably good, being better than IS (but let's face it, drinking your own wee is better than IS so no real choice there) and since Putin and Iran are also fighting IS that may now make them Good. America (still Good) will find it hard to arm a group of rebels being attacked by the Russians for fear of upsetting Mr Putin (now good) and that nice mad Ayatollah in Iran (also Good) and so they may be forced to say that the Rebels are now Bad, or at the very least abandon them to their fate. This will lead most of them to flee to Turkey and on to Europe or join IS (still the only constantly bad group).

To Sunni Muslims, an attack by Shia Muslims (Assad and Iran) backed by Russians will be seen as something of a Holy War, and the ranks of IS will now be seen by the Sunnis as the only Jihadis fighting in the Holy War and hence many Muslims will now see IS as Good (Doh!.)

Sunni Muslims will also see the lack of action by Britain and America in support of their Sunni rebel brothers as something of a betrayal (mmm.might have a point.) and hence we will be seen as Bad.

So now we have America (now bad) and Britain (also bad) providing limited support to Sunni Rebels (bad) many of whom are looking to IS (Good / bad) for support against Assad (now good) who, along with Iran (also Good) and Putin (also, now, unbelievably, Good) are attempting to retake the country Assad used to run before all this started?

So, now you fully understand everything, all your questions are answered!!!!

MODERN DAY DUTIES OF A TEACHER

After being interviewed by the school administration, the prospective teacher said:

"Let me see if I've got this right.

You want me to go into that room with all those kids, correct their disruptive behavior, observe them for signs of abuse, monitor their dress habits, censor their T-shirt messages and instil in them a love for learning.

You want me to check their backpacks for weapons, wage war on drugs and sexually transmitted diseases, and raise their sense of self-esteem and personal pride.

You want me to teach them patriotism and good citizenship, sportsmanship and fair play, and how to register to vote, balance a check book, and apply for a job.
You want me to check their heads for lice, recognize signs of antisocial behavior, and ensure that they all pass their final exams.

You also want me to provide them with an equal education regardless of their handicaps, and communicate regularly with their parents in English, Arabic or any other language, by letter, telephone, newsletter, and report card.

You want me to do all this with a piece of chalk, a blackboard, a bulletin board, a few books, a big smile, and a starting salary that qualifies me for "New Start."

You want me to do all this, and then you tell me.....

I CAN'T wear a small cross or say "Merry Christmas" because someone might take offense?

At last, confirmation of Murphy's Law with a wonderful Irish explanation

Murphy drops some buttered toast on the kitchen floor and it lands butter-side-up. He looks down in astonishment, for he knows that it's a law of nature of the universe that buttered toast always falls butter-side-down.

So he rushes round to the presbytery to fetch Father Flanagan. He tells the priest that a miracle has occurred in his kitchen. But he won't say what it is, so he asks Fr. Flanagan to come and see it with his own eyes. He leads Fr. Flanagan into the kitchen and asks him what he sees on the floor.

"Well," says the priest, "it's pretty obvious. Someone has dropped some buttered toast on the floor and then, for some reason, they flipped it over so that the butter was on top." "No, Father, I dropped it and it landed like that!" exclaimed Murphy

"Oh my Lord," says Fr. Flanagan, "dropped toast never falls with the butter side up. It's a miracle. Wait... it's not for me to say it's a miracle. I'll have to report this matter to the Bishop and he'll have to deal with it. He'll send some people round; to interview you, take photos, etc."

A thorough investigation is conducted, not only by the archdiocese but by scientists sent over from the Curia in Rome. No expense is spared. There is great excitement in the town as everyone knows that a miracle will bring in much need tourism revenue.

Then, after 8 long weeks and with great fanfare, the Bishop announces the final ruling. "It is certain that some kind of an extraordinary event took place in Murphy's kitchen, quite outside the natural laws of the universe. Yet the Holy See must be very cautious before ruling a miracle. All other explanations must be ruled out.

Unfortunately, in this case, it has been declared 'No Miracle' because they think that Murphy may have buttered the toast on the wrong side!"
