Run 1831 – 11th. April 2022

Hare or Doe – Bingo

Hare is the male name for a rabbit, the female is Doe so do we call all our female trail setters Does? Alternatively, do we call our trans genders Dares or Hoes? Does a Doe need to set a run as long as a Hare? Do female non trans gender runners get to run shorter distances & do we need to set two runs to accommodate them?

I thought all people born with dicks were blokes & those born with pussies sheilas but maybe I'm just too old to understand the world.

Anyway that's my rant for the day so over to those who write better stuff.

Doc began with an acknowledgement to some mob, who had an association with this area of Gondwanaland & offered the following:

Caringbah – Acknowledgment of the Dharawal people as the traditional custodians of the area. Also acknowledge Cold Duck for his local knowledge and research he could not share earlier due to runs cancelled due to Covid.

- Caringbah is Aboriginal for a Pademelon Wallaby. Small 76cm tall. There is even a Redneck variety (blue singlets and tattoos)
- Before 1911, it was this place called “Highfield”
- Four local landmarks
 - * “Caringbah Drive in” – opened in 1956 & closed in 1988. Was where McDonalds now is on Taren Point Rd. Duck would go “courting” Dirty there with a Flagon of Ben Ean Moselle & 2 chilled glasses. Not sure how much they saw of the Movies ???
 - * “Sutherland Hospital”. Opened in 1958. Hashers born there? (Merkin & Grewsome)
 - * “McDowalls Department Store”. Opened in 1961 on the corner of Kingsway & President Ave opposite the Pub. It was the biggest stand-alone Department Store in Sydney. It then became Waltons.
- “Caringbah Inn” – opened in 1954 - where Pig got kicked out of many years ago. The Bouncers didn't like the look of him. I (Doc) recall going there in the 80s – first pub I'd been to where the schooners were made of plastic - not a good sign. Duck says where the Sharks players got pissed after training in the 70's & 80's on either Tuesday or Thursday nights. Their other drinking venue was Taren Point Pub. (sharks in the tank and tanked sharks?)

- Average House price $1.7 Million

He then passed over to Dundee for the run report, given that Merkin had shortcuted the pack again & believed the only person to finish the back half of the run would be the best bloke to administer the last rites,

Dundee offered his usual academic study of the trail as it aligned to previously set trails by the Doe, which had a number of minor & major mishaps (confusing miles with kilometres etc.). This time, however, he was of the belief that it set a precedent for future trail setters by offering a well designed trail, with a few checks & on backs, keeping the pack together for most of the run, with the exception of poor old Curtseying, who became confused as it was a night time run &, although he's lived in the Shire most of his latter life, he got lost.

He maintained that the possible exception to a perfectly set trail was misunderstanding this was a night run, even though she set it during the day & the trail markers after the checks & on backs were so far away that the front runners – Dundee & Sir Les – stopped checking.

Despite this minor anomaly he suggested the run was worth 8.5 out of 10. Much appreciation from the Doe, which won't be elaborated upon here.

Run Report

With an overload of Easter eggs, a lot of the Hashers were early to Bingo's run looking to lose a few kilos. The carpark of the library at Caringbah was abuzz with stories of holidays and Rabbit looking very festive in her bunny ears and Easter shorts

On On was called and off went the front runners including Duck, Grewsome, Cameron, Andrew and Scotch Mist with Sir Les languishing with the walkers. I held back to check if he was running after so many weeks away. Sir Les assured me he was running and off we went to catch up with the pack.

Dundee was leading the way through the laneways down towards John Dwyer oval when all the front runners hit the first of many on-backs. Back they came and we headed south towards Caringbah Road for the first of the checks.

Duck was trying his hardest to get Cameron to do all the checks, so that he didn't have to do it himself, but Cameron was being selective and headed down Holly Street, towards the Burra Highway.

Another on-back towards Cronulla, which caught a lot of the front runners and Dundee and Curtsying headed west towards Willarong Road which saw the first of many hills and Dundee cursing Bingo and suggesting she was trying to kill him.

Round and round we went through the back street, Sir Les peeled off and headed back to the bucket, followed by Cold Duck.

The rest of the pack kept going past Laguna Street School and around Glenn McGrath Oval before seeing the “On Home” and heading back to the bucket.

Great run and great map (street-directory.com.au) and worthy of the 8.5 score from Dundee.

Prickette of the Week

Dirty Weekend was nominated by Blondie for not making an appearance at their run last week & by Grewsome for having a gruff voice, which may have something to do with not being there last week or maybe why Duck had a large grin.

Bingo was nominated by Sir Les for not sharing her Covid disease with Dundee for some reason, which may have something to do with his just having it previously & it's not like venereal disease & can be caught by copulating.

Prick of the Week

Dundee was nominated by QR for ringing him & allowing his grandkids to entertain him for an hour. He was also nominated by Duck for supposedly telling tall tales in the Trash – shit I thought that's what it was for.

Grewsome was nominated by Scotch Mist (now this is a very long rant & I may have it all wrong cause I'm not a very fast writer). Apparently he asked her or it may be the other way round, to attend to the car insurance & it gets a bit confusing, cause I'm not sure whether she took a fully comprehensive policy, which meant that when he crashed the car with his new caravan attached then took out the letterbox. It was a minor catastrophe as it also affected poor old Cameron's door to his wardrobe in the caravan. Duck also nominated him for something but I couldn't write fast enough.

Cam was nominated by Duck for actually checking for trail after two checks & getting both of them wrong, stating he's not doing that again. The good thing is, when he becomes Trail Master next year he'll have the map.

Winners – Dirty Weekend & Grewsome.

BIRTHDAY REMINDER

This week we celebrate a special birthday.

Monica Lewinsky turns 50.

Can you believe it?

It seems like only yesterday, she was crawling around the White House on her hands and knees, putting everything in her mouth.....

There was a man who lost one of his arms in an accident. He became very depressed because he had loved to play Golf and do lots of things that took two arms.

One day in his despair, he decided to commit suicide. He got on an elevator and went to the top of a building to jump off. He was standing on the ledge looking down and saw this man skipping along, whistling and kicking up his heels. He looked closer and saw that this man didn't have any arms at all.

He started thinking, what am I doing up here feeling sorry for myself, I still have one good arm to do things with. There goes a man with no arms skipping down the sidewalk so happy, and going on with his life.

He hurried down and caught up with the man with no arms. He told him how glad he was to see him because he had lost one of his arms and felt ugly and useless and was going to kill himself. He thanked him again for saving his life and he knew he could make it with one arm if that guy could go on with no arms.

The man with no arms began dancing and whistling and kicking up his heels again.

He asked, 'Why are you so happy anyway?'

He said, 'I'm NOT happy ... My balls are itchy

Cleanup on aisle 25,

We have a husband down!!!.'

A husband and wife are shopping when the husband picks up a case of beer and puts it in their cart.

'What do you think you're doing?' asks the wife.

'They're on sale, only $30 for 24 cans he replies.

'Put them back, we can't afford them demands the wife, and so they carry on shopping.

A few aisles further on along the woman picks up a $60 jar of face cream and puts it in the basket.

'What do you think you're doing?' asks the husband.

'It's my face cream. It makes me look beautiful,' replies the wife.

Her husband retorts: 'So does 24 cans of beer and it's half the price.'

He never knew what hit him

How soon is too soon?

Not soon enough. Laboratory tests over the last few years have proven that babies who start drinking soda during that early formative period have a much higher chance of gaining acceptance and "fitting in" during those awkward pre-teen and teen years. So, do yourself a favor. Do your child a favor. Start them on a strict regimen of sodas and other sugary carbonated beverages right now, for a lifetime of guaranteed happiness.
