Hare – Tickle's Coogee Canter

Drizzling rain suggested a reduced Hashing group would attend the return to the scene of many Coogee mountain runs, bound to test the joints & extremities. But the usual hardy attendees were bolstered by Bren Gun's reappearance after some weeks away.

Tickle had decided not to mark out a run & would act as a live hare, with Merkin in pursuit after recent surgery, to assist by ensuring any stragglers were kept in the group.

Over to Merkin:

Run Report

After the heavens had opened up just as Tickle was about to set the run, they parted just as the pack gathered for the start of the run.

With no trail, Tickle offered to be TM and guide the runners around the trail, as I was still incapacitated.

As the Hashers headed off for the first of many hills some of the pack was still trying to find a car park and had to chase the front runners to catch up.

Up and down stairs Hot Dick, Ice Box, Dundee, Grewsome, Scotch Mist, Cameron, Andrew Cold Duck, Sir Les and Rabbit were led around the street by Tickle, before we got to the Randwick Environment Park which we circumnavigated with some virtual on backs catching some of the front runners.

The walkers including Stop Cock, Dirty Weekend,, Hannibal, Doc, Blondie, Goon, Goldmark, Bingo and Brengun made there way around the Environment Park before heading back to the bucket in time for the runners to come in..

Great effort again Tickle and worthy of the 9.25/10 score.

Circle:

Doc called Circle up & the usual gaggle of harriettes paid no attention, all talking at once nobody listening, which suggests they just like to talk, something we already knew. Then he called on Merkin to give the run report, which means anything I write here will be the same as what he's sent me above so I won't write anything.

Andy was given the responsibility of pouring the drinks & proceeded to give half measures, thereby ensuring his tenure as future bucketmaster might be limited.

Over to Doc:

- 🕒 Coogee became a suburb name in 1838, 13 years before the more famous Bondi Beach.
- 🕒 It 1833 it became illegal in NSW to swim during daylight hours within view of a public wharf, quay or bridge or road so enclosed bathing pools started to pop up in places like the Domain.
- 🕒 In 1876 The secluded rock pool at Coogee's south end was built up into the McIver Women's Baths. It was frequently used by the famous Sarah "Fanny" Durack, prior to the 1912 Olympics held in Stockholm – the first to allow women to compete in swimming. The pool is still for women only and exempt under the anti-discrimination act. Clothing is optional but sunscreen highly recommended. (Guess which Harriette found this out the hard way?)
- 🕒 In the early 1900s public bathing became allowed and the Coogee Surf Life Saving Club was a foundation member of the Surf Bathing Association of NSW. In 2016, their club house was almost demolished by high seas
- 🕒 This year high seas again exposed the foundations of the Coogee Pleasure Pier, which was demolished by high seas in 1934. Randwick Council removed the foundations with much objection from nostalgic locals.
- 🕒 The famous Randwick Rugby club was formed in 1882 has produced 93 Wallabies. Their home ground is still at Coogee oval, but it's clubhouse has been replaced by a Dan Murphy outlet.

Athletes

Bingo – 1,050 & Hannibal – 800.

Pricks of the Week

Scotch Mist was nominated by Hannibal for teaching her son how to pour beer, thereby ensuring that he will be always available to do same as required at home.

Tickle was nominated by Rabbit for setting a run full of hills & the only way we could've not experienced hills in Coogee is if we ran around inside the club.

Stopcock was nominated by Tickle for suggesting he was going to reduce the size of the bubbly supply cause Slotcard wasn't coming & by Duck for asking where the bucket was going to be in Sans Souci, which is next week's run & then by Dirty for asking them did he need to pass the Maccas & KFC to park.

Grewsome was nominated by Scotch Mist for forgetting to take Andy's jacket on the last weekend away & making SM give up her jacket.

Winners – Stopcock & Scotch Mist

Apres Circle:

After listening to Dirty & Bingo discuss what constitutes a rare steak for 30 minutes & then discussed everything they know about football, which took the next minutes & ended up suggesting it was all too rough. I'm considering of not having this thing as a regular entry until Bren Gun told us a story about his grandfather in the first world war & Hot Dick about his uncle being attacked in the Solomon Islands in the second world war.

This, then degenerated into when the third world war would start & with which countries & it was agreed that China wouldn't be involved cause they're chicken shit. But it was getting late so we thought it better not to antagonise Mr Xi, who probably has all the pubs & clubs in Australia bugged at the moment.

Aussie Bush Etiquette

In General:

- 1. Never take an open stubby to a job interview.
- 2. Always identify people in your paddocks before shooting at them.
- 3. It's tacky to take an Esky to church.
- 4. If you have to vacuum the bed, it's time to change the sheets.
- 5. Even if you're certain you're included in the will, it's rude to take your ute and trailer to the funeral.

Dining Out:

- 1. When decanting wine from the box, tilt the paper cup and pour slowly so as not to bruise the wine.
- 2. If drinking directly from the bottle, hold it with only one hand. Darwin stubbies excluded.

Entertaining in Your Home:

1. A centrepiece for the table should never be anything prepared by a taxidermist..
2. Don't allow the dog to eat at the table, no matter how good his manners.

Personal Hygiene:

1. While ears need to be cleaned regularly, this should be done in private, using one's OWN ute keys.
2. Even if you live alone, deodorant isn't always a waste of money.
3. Extensive use of deodorant can only delay bathing by a few days.
4. Dirt and grease under the fingernails is a no-no, it alters the taste of finger foods and if you are a woman it can draw attention away from your jewellery.

Theatre/Cinema Etiquette:

1. Crying babies should be taken to the foyer and picked up after the movie ends.
2. Refrain from yelling abuse at characters on the screen. Tests have proven they can't hear you.

Weddings

1. Livestock is a poor choice for a wedding gift.
2. For the groom, at least, rent a tux. A tracksuit with a cumber-bund and a clean football jumper can create a tacky appearance
3. Though uncomfortable, say "yes" to socks and shoes for the occasion.

Driving Etiquette

1. Dim your headlights for approaching vehicles, even if your gun's loaded and the kangaroo's in your rifle sight.
2. When entering a roundabout, the vehicle with the largest roo bar doesn't always have the the right of way.
3. Never tow another car using panty hose and duct tape.
4. When sending your wife down the road with a petrol can, it's impolite to ask her to bring back beer too.

JEWISH DIVORCE...

A Jewish daughter says to her mother, "I'm divorcing Irving."

"All he Wants is sex, sex and more sex.

My vagina is now the size of a 50-cent piece when it used to be a size of a nickel."

Her mother says,

"You're married to a multi-millionaire businessman,

You live in an 8 Bedroom mansion,

You drive a $250,000 Ferrari,

You get $2,000 a week allowance,

You take 6 vacations a year and

You want to throw all that away.....Over 45 cents?"

THE ITALIAN WEDDING TEST

I was a very happy man.

My wonderful girlfriend and I had been dating for over a year, so we decided to get married.

There was only one little thing bothering me..

It was her beautiful, younger sister, Sofia.

My prospective sister-in-law was twenty-two, wore very tight miniskirts, and generally was bra-less. She would regularly bend down when near me and I always got a nice view. It had to be deliberate - she never did it around anyone else. One day she called me and asked me to come over "to check my Sister's wedding invitations". She was alone when I arrived and she whispered that she still had strong feelings for me & couldn't overcome them anymore. She told me that she wanted me just once before I got married and said "Before you commit your life to my sister". Well, I was astonished and couldn't say a word. She then said, "I'm going upstairs to my bedroom". "if you want one last wild fling, just come up and go for it". I was stunned as I watched her go up the stairs. I stood there for a moment, turned and made a bee-line for the front door. I opened the door, and started for my car. Lord, my entire future family was standing outside, all clapping! With tears in his eyes, my future father-in-law hugged me. He said, 'Sergio, we are very happy that you have passed our little test. We couldn't ask for a better man for our daughter. Welcome to the family my son..'

And the moral of this story is:
Always keep your condoms in your car.

So after landing my new job as a Bunnings greeter, a good find for many retirees, I lasted less than a day..... About two hours into my first day on the job a very loud, unattractive, mean-acting woman walked into the store with her two kids, yelling obscenities at them all the way through the entrance. As I had been instructed, I said pleasantly, 'Good morning and welcome to Bunnings. Nice children you have there. Are they twins?' The ugly woman stopped yelling long enough to say, 'Hell no, they ain't twins. The oldest one's 9, and the other one's 7. Why the hell would you think they're twins? Are you blind, or just stupid?' So I replied, 'I'm neither blind nor stupid, Ma'am, I just couldn't believe someone slept with you twice. Have a good day and thank you for shopping at Bunnings.' My supervisor said I probably wasn't cut out for this line of work.

A chemist walks back into his shop after a short break and sees a man leaning against the wall.

"What's wrong with him?" he asks his assistant

"He came in for cough syrup but I couldn't find any so I gave him an entire bottle of laxatives" replied the assistant.

"You f*cken idiot" exclaims the chemist, "You can't treat a cough with laxatives"

"Of course you can" replies the assistant, "Look at him. He's too f*cken scared to cough"

You think you have lived to be 80 and know who you are, then along comes someone and blows it all to hell!

An old Marine Pilot sat down at the Starbucks, still wearing his old USMC flight suit and leather jacket and ordered a cup of coffee.

As he sat sipping his coffee, a young woman sat down next to him. She turned to the pilot and asked, 'Are you a real pilot?'

He replied, 'Well, I've spent my whole life flying planes, first Stearmans, then the early Grumman... flew a Wildcat and Corsair in WWII, and later in the Korean conflict, Banshees and Cougars. I've taught more than 260 people to fly and given rides to hundreds, so I guess I am a pilot, and you, what are you?'

She said, 'I'm a lesbian. I spend my whole day thinking about naked women. As soon as I get up in the morning, I think about naked women. When I shower, I think about naked women.

When I watch TV, I think about naked women. It seems everything makes me think of naked women.'

The two sat sipping in silence.

A little while later, a young man sat down on the other side of the old pilot and asked: "are you a real pilot?"

He replied, 'I always thought I was, but I just found out I'm a lesbian.'

A female CNN journalist heard about a very old Jewish man who had been going to the Wailing Wall in Jerusalem to pray, twice a day, every day, for a long, long time. To check it out, she went to the Wall, and there he was walking slowly up to the holy site.

She watched him pray and after about 45 minutes, when he turned to leave, she approached him for an interview.

"Pardon me Sir, I'm Rebecca Smith from CNN. What's your name?"

"Morris Feinberg," he replied

"Sir, how long have you been coming to the Wailing Wall to pray?"

"For about 60 years."

"60 years! That's amazing! What do you pray for?"

"I pray for peace between the Christians, Jews and the Muslims. I pray for all the wars and all the hatred to stop. I pray for all our children to grow up safely as responsible adults, and to love their fellow man."

"And how do you feel Sir, after doing this for 60 years?"

"It's like talking to a f---king brick wall."

Always watch for cameras and beware of where you might be standing.....

RETARDED GRANDPARENTS

(this was actually reported by a teacher)

After Christmas, a teacher asked her young pupils how they spent their holiday away from school...

One child wrote the following:

We always used to spend the holidays with Grandma and Grandpa.

They used to live in a big brick house but Grandpa got retarded and they moved to Batemans Bay where everyone lives in nice little houses, and so they don't have to mow the grass anymore!>

They ride around on their bicycles and scooters and wear name tags because they don't know who they are anymore.

They go to a building called a wreck center, but they must have got it fixed because it is all okay now. They do exercises there, but they don't do them very well. There is a swimming pool too, but they all jump up and down in it with hats on. At their gate, there is a doll house with a little old man sitting in it. He watches all day so nobody can escape. Sometimes they sneak out, and go cruising in their golf carts!

Nobody there cooks, they just eat out. And, they eat the same thing every night --- early birds.

Some of the people can't get out past the man in the doll house. The ones who do get out, bring food back to the wrecked centre for pot luck.

My Grandma says that Grandpa worked all his life to earn his retardment and says I should work hard so I can be retarded someday too.

When I earn my retardment, I want to be the man in the doll house. Then I will let people out, so they can visit their grandchildren.

Roll call on the first day back at school in Broadmeadows

Vic ...(a suburb of Melbourne)

The teacher began calling out the names of the pupils:

"Mustafa El Ekh Zeri?"

"Here."

"Achmed El Kabul?"

"Here."

"Fatima Al Chadoury? "

"Here."

"Abdul Alu Ohlmi?"

"Here."

"Mohammed Ibn Achrha?"

"Here."

"Mi Cha El Mey Er" Silence in the classroom.

"Mi Cha El Mey Er"

Continued silence as everyone looked around the room. She repeated,

"Is there any child here called Mi Cha El Mey Er ?"

A boy arose and said, "Sorry teacher. I think that's me.

It's pronounced Michael Meyer."

After being married for 40 years, I took a careful look at my wife one day and said, "Forty years ago we had a cheap house, a junk car, slept on a sofa bed and watched a 10-inch black and white TV, but I got to sleep every night with a hot 23-year-old girl.

Now ... I have a $1m home, a $75k car, a nice big bed and a large screen TV, but I'm sleeping with a 63-year-old woman. It seems to me that you're not holding up your side of things."

My wife is a very reasonable woman. She told me to go out and find a hot 23-year-old girl and she would make sure that I would once again be living in a cheap house, driving a junk car, sleeping on a sofa bed and watching a 10-inch black and white TV.

Aren't older women great? They really know how to solve an old guy's problems.
