Run 1853 – 19th. September 2022

Hare – Cameron's Miranda Meander

Arriving in dribs & drabs for Cameron's initial run setting, ably assisted by his old man, the Miranda pub began to vibrate with Duck's last outing here. Not one of his best. Apparently, he was attending a gathering (meeting) during Covid & was asked to produce his licence for some reason (proof of age???), which he didn't have with him as the bride was to pick him up later.

The officious prick (not Duck the other bloke) wanted to evict our illustrious member on the basis he couldn't prove who he was. Why this was necessary nobody knows & why he wasn't allowing anyone to attend who didn't carry his licence is also a mystery.

Anyway, judging by the lack of patronage, there were probably a number affected by the managements lack of customer sociability. Our group would quadruple the patronage attending the dinner. Some bloke called Apple Tart, I presume was a Hashman, came along for the walk as we reassembled in the rear carpark.

Over to Merkin:

Run Report

RUN 1853- CINDERFELLA – MIRANDA HOTEL

Cinderfella A.K.A Cameron had been researching the Miranda area all week to come up with a trail that would test the pack. Thankfully he took pity on the oldies include Dundee and Cold Duck and instead of setting a 10km run, he settled for a 6.1km run which would see all starters finish.

As we got away from the start Dundee, Scotch Mist, Cameron, Andrew, Cold Duck, Hell I Smell Her, Rabbit and Tickle made our way down towards Seymour Shores with the walkers in close contact.

As we crossed the Boulevard everyone was close. That said, Tickle and Rabbit did shortcut due to some niggling injuring, albeit they still made it back to the bucket within minutes of the front running bastards.

The walkers including Slotcard, QR, Stop Cock, Dirty Weekend,, Hannibal, Doc, Blondie, Moa Goe,Goon, Goldmark and Sniffer Dog sauntered around the streets of Miranda before heading back to the bucket.

Great run and Hell I Smell Her awarded a 9.50/10 to Cinderfella A.K.A Cameron

Circle:

Doc called Circle up & then forgot where he was & then Dopey Scribe realised he had a pen that didn't work so Doc obliged with his pencil, which Dopey also couldn't work until Doc showed him how to press the button on the top.

Cameron was called upon to hear the run report administered by HISH, lots of checks & on backs, crossing roads & keeping the pack together. Winding around Miranda, good old fashioned run.

She gave it 9 out of 10.

So over to Doc:

Miranda

🕒 At one time Thomas Holt owned the land stretching from Sutherland to Cronulla. The manager of the Holt Sutherland Company called this section Miranda after a character in a William Shakespeare play. Can you name the play? ... The Tempest

🕒 Holts plans to use the land for sheep and cattle fell through and fertile parts were leased to market gardeners

🕒 After World War 1 many returned soldiers settled here.

🕒 In 1923 there were only 5 shops in Miranda. In 1964 Miranda Fair opened, the largest enclosed shopping centre in NSW, a title it held for a year (until Roselands opened). It was built on the site of Fowlers brick pit.

🕒 Another Miranda landmark held the title of "number one black spot for minor accidents in NSW" for many years – The roundabout at the intersection of The Boulevard, Kiora and Port Hacking Rd. After removing the roundabout and installing traffic lights accidents fell from 222 a year in 2002 to 13 in 2003.

🕒 The Miranda Hotel was the site of Blondie's first run with B2H3 – she managed to get her car locked in the Westfield Car Park overnight!

🕒 The Royal connection – Miranda Hotel was originally called "The Rex"

Pricks of the Week

Grenade was nominated by Grewsome pretending to be Scotch Mist for not knowing the difference between Prick & Prickette & for watching the Swans game on the weekend while doing the ironing, to which Doc made the statement “who said women couldn’t multitask”.

Scotch Mist was nominated by Duck for having her 13 years old son set a run from a pub.

Doc was nominated by Grewsome for referring to our illustrious group as the Bondi Hash House Harriers & for supplying the scribe with a shitty pencil, with which to record this incredible event.

Duck nominated by Merkin for suggesting the Stormweren’t in the finals of the ARL.

Grewsome was nominated by Scotch Mist for offering she & her son the best seats in the house for the game between the Sharks & the Rabbits in the Members Stand, knowing full well they wouldn’t be allowed as neither fitted the bill as looking like him. Accordingly, he & Andy sat in the Members & SM & Cam sat in the uncomfortable bleachers opposite & made his adoring wife & elder son having to walk a mile to the car.

Winners – Grenade & Grewsome

Apres Circle:

Slottie had the table in awe as she related her incredibly exciting venture in escaping the 1956 Hungarian revolution, The first two attempts were thwarted by the Russians & her father was taken away for questioning but the third attempt proved to be successful as her father turned up & they ventured into the countryside, meeting up with a family they didn’t know, who had strong connections with the border guards to Austria.

These lovely people gave them clothes (they had none) & the border guards assisted them to travel to Vienna, where they applied for visas to New Zealand as her father had friends in the country. Her mother was refused a visa as they (the stupid immigration dills) thought she may have TB. Accordingly, Slottie had to pretend some other woman they found was actually her mother & was tested & approved.

Accordingly Slottie has great empathy for refugees as most of us do. Unfortunately, many of the people trying to access our country aren’t really refugees & are trying to shortcut the system. They would’ve been welcomed years ago but not today. There’s a limit on refugee applications to 25% of the allowable immigration, which is understandable in today’s climate.

THE SHREDDER

A young engineer was leaving the office at 5:45 p.m. when he found the CEO standing in front of a shredder with a piece of paper in his hand.

"Listen," said the CEO, "this is a very sensitive and important document, and my secretary is not here. Can you make this thing work?"

"Certainly," said the young engineer. He turned on the machine, inserted the paper, and pressed the start button.

"Excellent, excellent!" said the CEO as his paper disappeared inside the machine, "I just need one copy."

Lesson: Never, never, ever assume that your boss knows what he's doing.

Sometime this year, Australian taxpayers may again receive another

> 'Economic Stimulus' payment.>

> This is indeed a very exciting program, and I'll explain it by > using a Q& A format:>

> Q. What is an 'Economic Stimulus' payment ?>

> A. It is money that the federal government will send to taxpayers.>

> Q. Where will the government get this money ?>

> A. From taxpayers>

> Q. So the government is giving me back my own money ?>

> A. Only a smidgen of it.>

> Q. What is the purpose of this payment ?>

> A. The plan is for you to use the money to purchase a high-definition

> TV set, thus stimulating the economy.>

> Q. But isn't that stimulating the economy of China ?>

> A. Shut up.>

> Below is some helpful advice on how to best help the Aust. Economy by > spending your stimulus cheque wisely:>

> If you spend the stimulus money at Coles, the money will go to China

> or Sri Lanka .>

> If you spend it on petrol, your money will go to the Arabs.>

> If you purchase a computer, it will go to India , Taiwan , Malaysia or

> China>

If you purchase fruit and vegetables, it will go to Mexico and the > Philippines. It will also go to

> New Zealand but that is OK.>

> If you buy an efficient car, it will go to Japan or Korea.>

> If you purchase useless stuff, it will go to Taiwan .>

> If you pay your credit cards off, or buy stock, it will go to > management

> bonuses and they will hide it offshore.>

> Instead, keep the money in Australia by:>

- > 1) Spending it at garage sales.>
- > 2) Going to the footie.>
- > 3) Spending it on prostitutes (Does this mean Craig Thomson is stimulating the economy on behalf of the HSU) or>
- > 4) Beer or>
- > 5) Tattoos.>
- > (These are the only Australian businesses still operating in
- > Australia) Actually I think Fosters is now owned offshore also)>
- > Conclusion:>
- > Go to a footie game with a tattooed prostitute that you met at a
- > garage-sale
- > and drink beer all day!>
- > No need to thank me, I'm just glad I could be of help.
