Hare – Hell I Smell Her's Highly Scenic Hop

Hell I Smell Her (HISH) just in case Duck asks me again, decided to fill the breach at the last moment when Grenade thought that visiting Queensland would be more exciting than setting a Hash run. It was a bit unfortunate that the On In venue was in a similar location as that set by Pig the previous week but we were assured that the run wouldn't include the swamp stampede of last week.

A good sized group arrived in the park next to the Motor Boat Club, with the skies threatening as maps were handed out & Bingo called On.

Over to Merkin:

Run Report

RUN 1859 -HELL I SMELL HER – SANS SOUCI

Everyone was feeling a little bit of Déjà vu as we gathered at the park outside of the St George Motor Boat Club, having been in the same suburb last week.

Luckily the rain held off in the afternoon which allowed the hare to set the trail before the start of the run.

On On was called and off we went along Wellington St, before catching all the runners including Blondie (back running), Ice Box, Hot Dick, Bingo, Dundee, Double Banger, Grewsome, Andrew, Scotch Mist and Cameron with the first on back.

Around the streets we went before heading over to the eastern side of Ricky Point Road and down towards the wet parklands for another verse of tip toeing through the tulips.

The walkers included QR, Venus, Brengun, Rabbet, Taxing (a little late), Doc, Dish and Goldmark all walked the trail without crossing the main road and made it back to the bucket.

Great work Hell I Smell Her and deserving of the 9.9/10.

On ON Merkin

Circle:

Doc called on Merkin to issue the last rites to Hish's run & started by talking about the highway near the Intersection or something (see I didn't write much of this stuff as I thought Bingo was recording it but she'd hit the pause button so I suppose Merkin's going to forward me his report soon & you've already read it anyway).

One thing I did note was that he suggested Banger was limp wristed – no idea why but if there's one person I wouldn't call limp wristed it's a bloke with a bloody big excavator, who knows where I live.

Anyway he said something about there being no rain & gave the venture a momentous 9.9 out of 10.

Doc than said he nothing to say about the suburb cause he said it all last week so, if you want to know then read last week's Trash

Visitors

Bren Gun had decided to venture south once more & informed us of his triathlon experience to put us all to shame.

Birthdays

None but HISH & Banger were celebrating their Ninth Year Anniversary (we think it's the Beer Anny).

Athletes

None

Pricks of the Week

Scotch Mist was nominated by Pig for using her female parking skills & covering two spaces for which she later blamed Dundee for not giving her enough room as he parked in the centre of the parking lane & he should've parked closer to the car on the other side.

She was also nominated by her son Cameron for not coming back from a check when she was called.

Venus was nominated by Merkin for talking in the circle & not turning up for a few weeks.

Andrew was nominated by Pig for turning up as a skeleton & enticing a dog to take a piece of his arm, which looked particularly inviting.

Pig was nominated by Scotch Mist for not understanding, which side of the bridge he was on & his excuse was because it was on the other side of the Shire & he doesn't travel there often.

He was also nominated by Blondie for having a red pants fetish but I think it was what was in the pants that was the fetish.

He was also nominated by Grewsome for taking Canon Mouth's mantle of offering some young boys lollies – must've been his other fetish.

Winners were Pig & Venus

Unaware of any of the calendarised projects this year now.

Selling my stuff if I die

The older you are and the longer you have been married, the funnier this is.....

One lazy Sunday morning the wife and I were quiet and thoughtful, sitting around the breakfast table when I said to her unexpectedly, "When I die, I want you to sell all my stuff, immediately."

"Now why would you want me to do something like that?" she asked.

"I figure a woman as fine as yourself would eventually remarry and I don't want some other asshole using my stuff."

She looked at me intently and said: "What makes you think I'd marry another asshole?"

How to Replace Mouse Balls

I don't know how they wrote this with a straight face. This was a real memo sent out by a computer company (IBM) to its employees in all seriousness. It went to all field engineers regarding a computer peripheral problem. The author of this memo was quite genuine. The engineers rolled on the floor! Especially note the last couple of sentences. To whom this may concern Re: Replacement of Mouse Balls.

If a mouse fails to operate or should it perform erratically, it may need a ball replacement. Mouse balls are now available as FRU (Field Replacement Units). Because of the delicate nature of this procedure, replacement of mouse balls should only be attempted by properly trained personnel. Before proceeding, determine the type of mouse balls by examining the underside of the mouse. Domestic balls will be larger and harder than foreign balls. Ball removal procedures differ depending upon the manufacturer of the mouse. Foreign balls can be replaced using the pop-off method. Domestic balls are replaced by using the twist-off method. Mouse balls are not usually static-sensitive. However, excessive handling can result in sudden discharge. Upon completion of ball replacement, the mouse may be used immediately. It is recommended that each person have a pair of spare balls for maintaining optimum customer satisfaction. Any customer missing his balls should contact the local personnel in charge of removing and replacing these necessary items. Please keep in mind that a customer without properly working balls is an unhappy customer.

Dead penguins- I never knew this

Did you ever wonder why there are no dead penguins on the ice in Antarctica - where do they go?

Wonder no more !!!

It is a known fact that the penguin is a very ritualistic bird which lives an extremely ordered and complex life.

The penguin is very committed to its family and will mate for life, as well as maintaining a form of compassionate contact with its offspring throughout its life. If a penguin is found dead on the ice surface, other members of the family and social circle have been known to dig holes in the ice, using their vestigial wings and beaks, until the hole is deep enough for the dead bird to be rolled into and buried.

The male penguins then gather in a circle around the fresh grave and sing: "Freeze a jolly good fellow"
"Freeze a jolly good fellow."

"Then they kick him in the ice hole."

The other day I needed to go to the public hospital but not wanting to sit there for 4 hours, I put on my blue jacket and pinned on a plastic ID card that I had made off the Internet onto the front of my jacket...

When I went into the hospital, I noticed that 3 quarters of the people got up and left. I guess they decided that they weren't that sick after all. Cut at least 3 hours off my waiting time. Here's the patch. Feel free to use it the next time you're in need of quicker emergency service:

It also works at Centrelink. It saved me 2 hours.💎

Don't try it at McDonald's though.....💎

The whole staff disappeared and I never got my order!

"The problems we face today are there because the people who work for a living are outnumbered by those who vote for a living"

This was written by a 21 yr old female who gets it. It's her future she's worried about and this is how she feels about the social welfare system that she's being forced to live in! These solutions are just common sense in her opinion.

Put me in charge . . .

Put me in charge of Centrelink payments. I'd get rid of cash payments and provide vouchers for 50kg bags of rice and beans, blocks of cheese, basic sanitary items and all the powdered milk you can use.

If you want steak, burgers, takeaway and junk food, then get a job.

Put me in charge of Medicare. The first thing I'd do is to get women to have birth control implants.

Then, we'll test recipients for drugs, alcohol, and nicotine. If you want to reproduce, use drugs, drink alcohol or smoke, then get a job.

Put me in charge of government housing. Ever live in military barracks?

You will maintain our property in a clean and good state of repair.

Your "home" will be subject to inspections anytime and possessions will be inventoried.

If you want a plasma TV or Xbox 360, then get a job and your own place.

Put me in charge of compulsory job search. You will either search for employment each week no matter what the job or you will report for community work.

This may be clearing the roadways and open spaces of rubbish, painting and repairing public housing, whatever we find for you.

We will sell your 22 inch rims and low profile tires and your dooff dooff stereo and speakers and put that money toward the "common good.."

Before you write that I've violated someone's rights, realise that all of the above is voluntary.

If you want our hard earned cash and housing assistance, accept our rules..

Before you say that this would be "demeaning" and ruin someones "self esteem," consider that it wasn't that long ago that taking someone else's money for doing absolutely nothing was demeaning and lowered self esteem.

If we are expected to pay for other people's mistakes we should at least attempt to make them learn from their bad choices. The current system rewards those for continuing to make bad choices.

AND While you are on Centrelink income you no longer have the right to VOTE!

For you to vote would be a conflict of interest..... If you want to vote, then get a job.

The teacher gave her fifth grade class an assignment: Get their parents to tell them a story with a moral at the end of it.

The next day, the kids came back and, one by one, began to tell their stories.

There were all the regular types of stuff: spilled milk and pennies saved.

But then the teacher realized, much to her dismay, that only Janie was left.

"Janie, do you have a story to share?"

'Yes ma'am. My daddy told me a story about my Mummy.

She was a Marine pilot in Desert Storm, and her plane got hit.

She had to bail out over enemy territory, and all she had was a flask of whiskey, a pistol, and a survival knife.

She drank the whiskey on the way down so the bottle wouldn't break, and then her parachute landed her right in the middle of 20 Iraqi troops.

She shot 15 of them with the pistol, until she ran out of bullets, killed four more with the knife, till the blade broke, and then she killed the last Iraqi with her bare hands."

"Good Heavens,' said the horrified teacher.

What did your Daddy tell you was the moral to this horrible story?"

"Don't f**k with Mummy when she's been on the piss."

YOU CAN'T ARGUE WITH NATURE?????

People living in Colorado Springs wondered why their rain water barrel was almost empty every day. They set up a couple cameras and look what they caught on film ~ Isn't nature beautiful ?

Absolutely priceless? How long can a bear take a bath in my rain barrel ? As long as he wants to !

Live well, laugh often, love much !

Hollywood Squares: These great questions and answers are from the days when "Hollywood Squares" game show responses were spontaneous, not scripted, as they are now.

Peter Marshall was the host asking the questions, of course.
