- *out of the Shire

Score : 9.3/10

Circle Report: Hannibal Lector

Forest Lodge, where a young SIR LES had his formative years, was the site of this week's run.

The Forest Lodge PS motto "We all pull together" where he went to school, is the creed SIR LES has followed since.

At every opportunity SIR LES does it.

Forest Lodge is at the top of a hill with the swamps of Glebe below.

Top venue for a run, SIR LES pulled it off.

Birthdays –

New Shoes – It was noticed that Doublebanger had taken his running shoes (which appeared to be new) off and was wearing thongs at the bucket ... the thongs and his feet were shouted a beer.

Prickette -

*Hannibal Lector > Scotch Mist – zigzagging, noticed Doublebanger leaving a dunny, commented on smell in the area

*Doublebanger > Hellismellher – she should have gone to toilet before the run

*Pig > Hellismellher – she should have used dunny before Doublebanger

Prick -

*Dundee > Sir Les – standing on his marked arrow hiding it

*Pig > Doublebanger – changing shoes before the Circle

 And this week's winners are Hellismellher and Doublebanger ***
