Run 1824 – 28TH February 2022

Hare: Cold Duck –Southern Cross Hotel

Starters Gun

Well miracles do happen. After a week of constant rain, the skies cleared last night for Duck's run.

Was it because Duck was born under a lucky star or because he had been a good boy and said his prayers. Unlikely!

I often mention the weather, but the weather is important for Hashers especially if you are the Hare.

Welcome back to Goon and Tickle, long time no see.

Run Review by Bingo

I would have liked more notice re being Run Reporter, and then I would have taken more notice of things on the Run. Instead I shall just make up some bullshit!

It was terrific run, through Sydney Park and along some cute little streets with $2 million cottages, a little exceptional. Duck was slaving away behind us putting down arrows. The run kept a neat little group together. I enjoyed the run and will award 8 ½ out of 10.

RA's Report – St Peters

- Named due to having “St Peters Anglican Church” in the area
- It is a beautiful old Church just up the Highway
- It opened in 1838, and has been claimed to be the first Church built in Australia using non convict labour
- It has a graveyard full of notable people, such as Frederick Unwin, who had Unwin’s Road and Unwin’s Bridge Road named after him
- St Peters is also known due to the Old Brickworks on what is now Sydney Park – the Chimneys still remain
- It first started operating in the 1870’s. It closed after WW2 and became a Rubbish Tip.
- It became Sydney Park in the 1980’s.
- And, its other claim to fame is that the new M8 Motorway has its exit in St Peters – just across the road from the Pub
- And lastly, the “Town & Country Pub”, made famous in Slim Dusty’s song “Duncan” is in St Peters.
- Average House price $1.6 Million
